

1. Mesoamerica
2. Olmecs
3. Mestizos
4. Miguel Hidalgo
5. Montezuma
6. Los voladores
7. Mango, chili powder
8. The Mummy Museum
9. 130 years old
10. Uses include: a drink called pulque, tequila, medicine to help diabetes, papers, sopa, and needle and thread.
11. Obsidian
12. Teotihuacán
13. People who go from house to house retelling the Christmas story.
14. A nativity scene that is very exaggerated with large animals, people, etc. Most things aren't to scale. It is taken down on February 1.
15. It is the 6th of January, when kings put gifts inside the children's shoes. The kings ride on camels and water is left for them.
16. It is the Christmas Eve flower or poinsettia. Poinsett discovered it, who was an American Ambassador in Mexico.
17. They are spontaneous comedy skits that aren't scripted and include modern things like an SUV and cell phone.
18. It is like April Fool's Day mostly on the radio and on TV. It is celebrated on December 28.
19. A circle pastry with something hidden inside like dry fruits.
20. They have 7 points on them representing the 7 mortal sins. People hit it and there is candy inside that comes out when the piñata is hit hard enough.
21. Green, white and red
22. Mexico City
23. 6 years, one term
24. Felipe Calderón
25. 31
26. When the Mexicans beat the French
27. No, they are considered Mexican
28. A corn drink
29. A rooster
30. Cement
31. A plaza/town center
32. A root and it is yellow
33. A turkey
34. A natural spring